4. STANDING REPORTS

A. Manager's Report – General Manager Jeff Vesevick

1. Village Links/Reserve 22 – Manager's Report – October 2018

General Manager Vesevick said overall October was a dreary bad month for golf operations. Revenues are notably down. This is the first time in 10 years that rounds fell below 5,000 for the month of October. Golf outings did well with about $19,000 in revenues representing an increase of 16% over last year. Fall Fest ran through October. The free Tuesday promotion went well in October with about 374 rounds.

Food and Beverage Director Chapple said Reserve 22 was down because for the first two (2) weeks of October the dining room was closed due to the remodeling. Also, the patio was closed due to the inclement weather. The re-launch event for the dining room went really well. For November 2018, Reserve 22 was up about 5% to 6% and banquets were up 1%.

2. Reserve 22 Restaurant Reviews – Manager's Report – October/November 2018

The Commission discussed the restaurant reviews. Food and Beverage Director Chapple indicated he contacts patrons who post bad reviews. Commissioner Reinke asked if the reviews are shared with staff. Food and Beverage Director Chapple replied yes that the reviews are thoroughly discussed with wait and kitchen staff. General Manager Vesevick pointed out that overall Reserve 22 has 4.2 stars on Open Table and 4.3 stars on Trip Advisor, which are very favorable reviews. Commissioner Reinke said as long as these customer concerns are being addressed by staff.

B. Financial Report – Jeff Vesevick

1. Village Links/Reserve 22 – Financial Statements - October 2018

General Manager Vesevick indicated the net position for Village Links and Reserve 22 was down $57,000 from last year's October. Also operating income for October was down about $350,000 from last year due to lower revenues and Reserve 22's higher staffing levels in order to improve service levels. The facility remains profitable at $500,000 in operating income. The Village Links and Reserve 22 remain in a good position cash-wise with $1.7 million on-hand at the end of October.

General Manager Vesevick indicated staff is counting on a better weather year next year and if another bad revenue year is experienced next year, then staff is prepared to change the business model. Director of Golf Allen said he was pretty confident the declining revenues are due to bad weather year, and revenues should be up next year. Commissioner Graham said it is a real bright spot to see the $127,000 growth in revenues for banquets over last year. Trustee Kenwood said it is important to note the operation is still earning a profit.

C. Trustee Liaison Report – John Kenwood

Trustee Kenwood invited all the Commissioners to attend the Town Hall meeting this Saturday, December 1, 2018 at 10AM with the Village Board candidates. Two Hound Red plans to open Superbowl Sunday in February. The Taylor Street Pedestrian tunnel project should be completed on-time by the end of the year. Noble House plans to open in mid-December. The Village Board will be discussing the redevelopment of the Geische property in December.

5. GOLF PROGRAM DISCUSSION

1. Village Links - Golf Promotions Manual
2. Village Links - Green Fee Usage Table - Years 2016-2018

The above two items were discussed together.

General Manager Vesevick said the Village Links philosophy is to book the full rate as much as possible. Each year staff evaluates the performance of the various promotions and determine which offerings are doing well and the others that are possibly hurting operations. Director of Golf Allen said the promotions allow us to give options for discounted rates. Director of Golf Allen said a lot of thought goes into the promotions. The Village Links is still one of the busiest golf courses if not the busiest in the area. Commissioner Diver asked what the numbers tell you. General Manager Vesevick replied we look for rates that are under performing or overperforming.

Commissioner Park inquired if rates are posted on-line. Director of Golf Allen replied a breakdown of the all rates are publicized on the Links website. Director of Golf Allen said one of the reasons why the Village Links is busy is because we try to accommodate many golfers.

General Manager Vesevick asked Director of Golf Allen to discuss some of the new rate options. Director of Golf Allen said CBGA came up with the Youth on Course program whereby golf fees are subsidized for juniors and allows them to play 9 holes for $5, while the course is reimbursed $10. For 2018, there was 287 participants, while for 2017 there was 230 participants. The Village Links also partnered with the CDGA on a new marketing strategy. CDGA has the best database in the golf industry. The Village Links paid the CDGA to use their database to organize some golfing packages. For this year, 99 golfers participated in the promotion. General Manager Vesevick said this promotion provides a lot more exposure for the Village Links. Director of Golf Allen said the Links will partner with the CDGA again next year. Commissioner Diver asked how much is the cost of this program. Director of Golf Allen replied $3,200 was spent this year, and next year $7,000 to $10,000 is allocated to this project.

General Manager Vesevick said there is not a currently a policy on outings, but staff knows not to book outings during permanent tee-times. Also, staff is very careful not to book outings consistently so patrons complain. Some courses will not host weekend outings. Unfortunately, most of the lucrative outings are held on weekends. Director of Golf Allen said before we make any policy, he highlighted that for this year rounds were down, green fees were down, while outings were slightly up. Outings offer guaranteed revenue and are rarely canceled for weather. Commissioner Reinke asked what percentage of the outings include food. Director of Golf Allen replied about 95%. Food and Beverage Director Chapple added outings definitely spend more money on food and beverages. Director of Golf Allen said he plans on raising pricing on weekend outings next year.

Commissioner Graham suggested offering a staggered schedule for outings whereby if there was a Friday night outing then there will be no outings on the following Saturday and Sunday afternoons. Commissioner Graham also recommended be very discriminating with shotgun outings. Director of Golf Allen said this could possibly limit the Village Links revenue potential.

Commissioner Reinke said we probably don't want to implement a set a golf outing policy at this time. Commissioner Graham said staff is cognizant of the Recreation Commission's concerns regarding outings. Commissioner Reinke said this is a helpful discussion and the rangers need to be a little more diligent. Commissioner Diver suggested posting a separate schedule for golf outings. Director of Golf Allen said he promises to address the concerns regarding golf outings.

6. OTHER BUSINESS

None.

7. NEXT REGULAR MEETING FRIDAY, DECEMBER 28, 2018

General Manager Vesevick said an email will be distributed regarding whether the December 28, 2018 will be held. The members in attendance recommended canceling the meeting.

8. ADJOURN

Commissioner Park moved and Commissioner Diver seconded, to adjourn the meeting. The meeting was adjourned at 8:15a.m.

Annual FALL FEST promotions continued through November. Golf green fees were discounted 25% for the remainder of the season, however, that would be short lived, as 80% of the rounds played for November and December occurred in the first week of November, due to early snow and cold, wet, weather conditions. Both courses were officially closed for the season on November 27, following an 8" snowstorm.

The 8th Annual Iron Man Open, scheduled for Sunday, November 18, was postponed due to weather for the second straight season, and ultimately cancelled.

Director of Golf Noel Allen continues booking golf outings for 2019, collecting 2 deposits, and forwarding 3 proposals. Outings (-4%) for the year fared slightly better than overall golf revenues (-6%) for the year, contributing $294,838 in revenues, versus $307,305 a year ago.

Preparations for the annual Holiday Open House were underway by creating gift card promotions, preparing for Golf Shop Sale, and securing Santa gifts for the children.

Golf Staff took an early opportunity to get a jump for 2019 preparations by updating mailing lists, preparing the Golf Events Calendar, programming golf fees and tee sheets, meeting with vendors.

We made a reservation on opentable for 4:30 on New Year's Eve. The hostess informed us that the kitchen did not open until 5:00 and she wasn't sure why opentable had earlier reservations listed. She explained the situation and sat us at a table informing us that she told the kitchen it needed to be ready for the evening. She and the wait staff were very accommodating and we enjoyed our dinner with no delays. The restaurant was recently renovated and my entire family liked the new style. We will definitely go to Reserve 22 again.

Quiet setting. Newly remodeled but seems pretty much the same. Limited menu. Ideal place for summer outdoor dining, but very ordinary for indoor dining. Friendly staff.

Pretty dining room with tables spaced well. Service was good however when they brought the food out it was just warm, not hot and they forgot my daughters meal. The waitress did make up for the missing meal. Food was just ok.

Food was ok nothing special. Soup and sandwich no bread choice was asked, coleslaw portion was small . Ordered a scope of vanilla ice cream with hot fudge it came out with Hershey's syrup and a soup spoon. We wanted a holiday (eggnog) drink didn't have any . Coffee was weak & 1/2& 1/2 was expired.

Ate at Reserve 22 before attending a performance at the College of DuPage's MAC Theater. It is very close and convenient to the College. Both meals were enjoyable. I had the quesadilla steak special. It was good with a little kick. My friend had the Nicoise Salad. At $15 it was a great value. It was huge and the tuna was delicious. The service was very attentive. The noise level was a tad high. The dining room has recently been redecorated and looks very refreshed with modern lights, new chairs. This is a go to spot for me in the summer when the patio is open.

Love the remodel. Food always good. I like the flatbreads and sandwiches. My wife had steak and said it was quite good. Good beer and liquor selection

Pleasant experience. I was surprised how large the bar area was. It was quite busy the night I went and the food took awhile, but the server was very friendly. Will definitely go back. Lots of parking

This review would have been much different if our server didn't disappear after we placed our dessert order. First, the food was good. We ordered the pork chops and the mahi mahi as our entrees. Both were prepared very well and were enjoyable. Our server was nice and did a check back on us. We placed our dessert order after we finished and that was when he disappeared. We waited a good 15 minutes for our order and eventually called the manager over who said she would check on it and didn't do anything but talk to people at another table. We then got the attention of our server and told him we wanted our dessert now and he went to the kitchen and got it. In their defense, the place was crowded with theater goers and it did seem they were short handed, but if they knew there was an event at COD with 2 shows, they should have staffed accordingly for the evening. We may give them one more chance, but I'll be sure to see if there is an event at the Mac before we decide to come back, because I don't think they handled this very well.

What a disappointment! We met there for dinner prior to hearing a duet that was playing there. The service was just okay and the food was worse. We all shared a flatbread which met with mixed reviews. One of our party had the meatloaf sandwich, one had the filet and the other had the chicken pot pie. Only the pot pie came out hot; the other two dishes were lukewarm at best. The pot pie had good flavor but was very runny which made it hard to eat. We ordered two desserts; one was their special (a white chocolate cranberry bread pudding) and the other was cheesecake. The "bread pudding" was nothing of the sort; it was more of a pound cake laid in slices on the plate. Very misrepresented!! The cheesecake was just average. Two of us had coffee; we were given half a cup each. The saddest part was when a manager stopped by and asked how our meal was, he got defensive. His response was "well, it was fine when I had it." He didn't apologize or offer to try to make things right. Sorry, we won't eat here again.

The atmosphere was nice but just a tad noisy so it was hard to hear others talking. The food was pleasant but not outstanding. Three of us had the filet mignon and all 3 were cooked exactly to our request, which were all different. Service was slow. Dinner took a while to be delivered and then we sat for nearly 30 minutes after finishing our meal and our plates were removed before the waiter even asked if we wanted coffee or dessert (by then we didn't and just requested our bill which still took a while longer.) Thankfully we weren't in a huge hurry and enjoyed the conversation with our guests while waiting but it seemed odd that it took so long because the restaurant wasn't full.

Our family had a business dinner here for some important decisions that needed to be made. We made the reservation for 6 on line; easy, we arrived at 5:45 to beat the crowd and the noise; great idea because it can get noisy. We all had a good dinner. One fillet was tough, and the crab cake sandwich was too bready. Otherwise we were well served by Dan and got our business done comfortably!

Very few people in restaurant, although bar was busy, a little older crowd. We had the fried chicken and steak quesadilla. Food was so-so. Wine a little expensive for a glass of California Rose' (over 10.00)
Most likely real nice views in the warmer days with seating outdoors.

Pretty,open setting with great food.

This is a restaurant at the Village Links golf course in Glen Ellyn. It has beautiful views out over the golf course. I had a hamburger on a gluten free bun. It was so good that I have been thinking about it all week.

Parking is sometimes an issue here as the golfers and diners both share the same lot. If you happen to come at the right time you may get a spot without a long walk, otherwise someone is in for a hike. It will be pretty with gardens and golf course views.
